First Prayer: (16th century Saxon Church Order)

Lord God, Heavenly Father, we pray that you would give us your Holy Spirit. Keep us in your grace, protect us in all temptations, defend us from all enemies of your Word for the honor of your name; and give to the whole Christian Church on earth your gracious peace, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. He lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Lesson: Jeremiah 31:31-34 A lesson from Jeremiah:

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt--a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the Lord," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalmody: 46 (Tones: single – 32; double – 24)

God is our ref/uge and strength,*

a very present / help in trouble.

Therefore we will not fear, though the / earth should change,*
though the mountains shake in the heart / of the sea;
though its waters / roar and foam,*
though the mountains tremble / with its tumult.
There is a river whose streams make glad the ci/ty of God,*
the holy habitation of / the Most High.
God is in the midst of the city; it shall / not be moved;*
God will help it when the / morning dawns.
The nations are in an uproar, the / kingdoms totter;*
he utters his voice, / the earth melts.
The Lord of / hosts is with us;*
the God of Jacob / is our refuge.
Come, behold the works /of the Lord;*
see what desolations he has brought / on the earth.
He makes wars cease to the end / of the earth;*
he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear; he burns the / shields with fire.
Be still, and know that / I am God!*
I am exalted among the nations, I am exalted / in the earth."
The Lord of / hosts is with us;*
the God of Jacob / is our refuge.
Glory to the Father, and / to the Son,*
and to the / Holy Spirit;
as it was in the begin-/ ning, is now,*
and will be forev- / er. Amen.

Second Lesson: Romans 3:19-28 A lesson from Romans:

Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. For "no human being will be justified in his sight" by deeds prescribed by the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.

But now, apart from law, the righteousness of God has been disclosed, and is attested by the law and the prophets, the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction, since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God; they are now justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood, effective through faith. He did this to show his righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over the sins previously committed; it was to prove at the present time that he himself is righteous and that he justifies the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of boasting? It is excluded. By what law? By that of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that a person is justified by faith apart from works prescribed by the law.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

HOLY GOSPEL: John 8:31-36 Glory to you, O Lord.

Then Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." They answered him, "We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, 'You will be made free'?"

Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever. So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed. The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Pastors Pericope Paragraph 10/29

(a "pericope" is a selected reading from scripture used as a lesson at worship)

To be truly "free" is to "continue in (Jesus') Word" - for His Word IS the truth that brings freedom in our relation to God and this world (Gospel). YHWH speaks (this time through Jeremiah) to make a new Covenant with His chosen people, and to declare He will no longer remember their sin (1st lesson). "Since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God", the way to eternity and a close relationship with God, is "through faith in Jesus Christ" (2nd lesson).

+Reformation Sunday 10/29

"Ecclesia semper reformanda": the Church is ALWAYS in need of being reformed. Martin Luther (1483-1546) saw this. He experienced it. He lived it! He challenged the institutional church of his day to re-form by returning to its origins and exorcising that which was not of God. "God remembers our sin no more" (1st lesson). We are "justified by faith" (2d lesson). The Son makes us free indeed!" (Gospel). Thanks be to God!
