WORD

First Lesson: Isaiah 35:1-10 A lesson from Isaiah:

The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, the desert shall rejoice and blossom; like the crocus it shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the Lord, the majesty of our God.

Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees.

Say to those who are of a fearful heart, "Be strong, do not fear!"

Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you." Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; the haunt of jackals shall become a swamp, the grass shall become reeds and rushes. A highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Holy Way; the unclean shall not travel on it, but it shall be for God's people; no traveler, not even fools, shall go astray. No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it; they shall not be found there, but the redeemed shall walk there. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalmody: Psalm 122 (Tones: Single 29 or Double 30)

I was glad when they / said to me,* "Let us go to the house / of the Lord!"

Our feet are standing within your gates, O / Jerusalem.* Jerusalem--built as a city that is bound firm- / ly together.

To it the tribes go up, the tribes / of the Lord,* as was decreed for Israel, to give thanks to the name / of the Lord.

For there the thrones for judgment / were set up,* the thrones of the / house of David.

Pray for the peace of / Jerusalem:* "May they pros- / per who love you.

Peace be with- / in your walls,*and security with- / in your towers."

For the sake of my rela- / tives and friends* I will say, "Peace / be within you."

For the sake of the house of the / Lord our God,* I will / seek your good.

Glory to the Father, and / to the Son,* and to the / Holy Spirit; as it was in the begin- / ning, is now,* and will be forev- / er. Amen.

Second Lesson: James 5:7-10 A lesson from James:

Be patient, therefore, beloved, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits for the precious crop from the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains. You also must be patient. Strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near. Beloved, do not grumble against one another, so that you may not be judged. See, the Judge is standing at the doors! As an example of suffering and patience, beloved, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Word of Life Jesus Christ

WOV pg. 48

Holy Gospel: Matthew 24:36-44 Glory to you, O Lord.

When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, "Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?" Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them. And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me." As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind? What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces. What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written, 'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.' Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Heavenly Father, accept the humble offerings we have brought to honor the age-old promise you have kept. Because you came in Jesus Christ to show your will of love and peace, free us by him to serve you in his name, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayers of the Church

First Intercession:

Almighty God, your Son gave us signs and miracles for faith that our redemption is accomplished; and so we rejoice in the opportunity of the coming season of his nativity to celebrate the paradox of his humanity -- that through sharing our helplessness, he became a sacrificial gift for us. As we encourage each other with carols and songs of praise, remembering that he was born to triumph over evil for our sake, send your Spirit to rehearse us for life in your presence.

Postlude

+ Pastors Pericope Paragraph 12/11

John questions Jesus – “are you the one or . . . ?” Jesus asks the people: “what did you go out to see?” Jesus IS Messaiah. He fulfills Isaiah’s words. John IS the prophetic forerunner who prepares the way. (Gospel) Isaiah promises a renewal of the land and God’s people in joy! (1st lesson) James counsels patience – in waiting for God’s promises and in relationship with one another (2nd lesson)

Weekly Worship Practice:

We gather weekly in reverence and awe, in joy and thanksgiving, in hope and peace. We come seeking forgiveness and reconciliation-inspiration and a sense of God's presence. We depart renewed, refreshed and recommitted to serve all God's people in need, as we have opportunity. We come open to God's giving. Having received we depart to share that with which God has blessed us.

Be sure there is a pew card with “Oh come, Oh come, Emmanuel” and “Light One Candle” at your place.

In the OCLP We Practice The "Reserved Sacrament". When laity “preside” at Holy Communion, they will use elements (bread and wine) previously consecrated by Pr. Paul, or another ordained pastor, at a prior worship service. Reserved elements are kept in an ambry for subsequent use in worship and distribution to the sick and shut-ins.

All baptized Christians are welcome to God's Table of Grace. All the baptized may commune in the OCLP with no age restriction; baptized children may begin communing after parents have consulted with Pastor. Those not yet communing of any age and for any reason may come forward to receive a verbal blessing. Indicate this by crossing your arms over your chest. The Lutheran Church believes, teaches and confesses that in, with and through the elements of bread and wine, Our Lord gives us His true body and blood for the forgiveness of our sin and the salvation of our lives. Anyone who has a legitimate impediment to receiving either element of the meal may receive in one kind only (bread or wine) and trust the Lord's grace that they are receiving full communion. Members, please fill out a “Voice From the Pew” folder to record your communion at least once a year. This is a constitutional requirement to determine our "Active" Voting” membership roster.

Thank You.

Evangelical's Christmas project this year is sponsoring a young family from the Riverside Elementary School. We will be buying gifts for a family with six children. The mom was very excited and appreciative of being selected for this project. There will be a list in the narthex for folks to sign up for a child or certain items and a little something for mom and dad. An asterisk will be next to items specifically requested by the children. We ask that gifts be unwrapped and returned to church no later than December 18th. Catie Lane, a nurse at Riverside, is coordinating this event. She states the children who attend Riverside are kind, hardworking, and always looking out for each other at school. Thanks everyone for your generosity and Christmas Spirit.

+St. Matthew

St. Matthew will be helping two families this Christmas. The needs of the children are on tags that can be found on the tree in the fellowship hall. Please bring the gifts wrapped and with the tags attached by Sunday, December 11th.

+Atonement

Atonement is working with the Opportunities for Otsego shelter program to share the Christmas spirit this year. The Opportunity House Emergency Shelter in Oneonta serves families and some single adults who are temporarily displaced for various reasons. The shelter staff welcomed our inquiry about collecting gifts for the four children and seven adult Angel Tree recipients!

Pick up a card from the Angel Tree! Check out the details about the recipient and any wrapping instructions. Please return the gift to the church by the service Sunday, Dec. 18.

+OCLP

The Stephen Ministers of Christ Church will host the Longest Night, A Service of Remembrance on December 21, 2022 at 5:30pm in the St. Agnes Chapel. As we light candles for our loved ones, our combined prayers will resonate through the darkness and shine a light on our sadness. May our candles remind us that the Christ Child is our light in the world and that God is with us, Always.
